Y. M. C. A. ANNUAL DINNER IS SCENE OF UNIQUE ASSEMBLAGE

Delegates from a Score of Countries Gather for Dinner and to Hear Reports

Members of the Honolulu Young Men's Christian Association to the number of more than 500, representative of a score of different nationalities and hailing from nearly every American state and territory and from every principal country of the world, gathered in Cooke Hall last evening in attendance at the banquet and meeting which marked the close of the association's fiscal year. Without doubt it was the most unique and

The games hall never looked more attractive than it did last night. Flags from every country, together with em-blems and banners adorned the walls. The guests were seated at long ta-bles, those from the various states and countries being in groups. Each table bore distinct decorations; Cali-fornia had the bear, Oregon its red apples, Kentucky its blue grass, Hawail its leis, and so on down the line. Scotland had its plaid, Ireland its harp and shamrocks, and China the flags of the new republic. Chairman Thomas Sharp of the decorations com-mittee spared no pains in his efforts to "do things up brown" as it were. In fact, every nook and cranny of the big hall had some sort of decoration that was distinctive. Led by George R. Carter, Hawaii members occupied one long table.

"This is just a chowder," announced President Richard H. Trent. "We want to hear from all the states and countries."

California started the fun with an efficient. The greatest of harmony enthusiastic yell.
